

SD FESTIVAL OF BOOK EVENTS

KEY: CHILDREN'S/Y.A. | FICTION | HISTORY/TRIBAL WRITING | NON-FICTION | POETRY | WRITERS' SUPPORT | SPECIAL EVENT

LOCATED IN BROOKINGS

MONDAY, Sept. 17

	Performing Arts Center Larson Memorial Concert Hall
7 pm	The Greatest Stories Rarely Told: Biblical Scholars and the Discrepancies of Scripture - Bart Ehrman

TUESDAY, Sept. 18

	Brookings Cinema 8 Theater #5	Old Market Eatery
1-3:45 pm	Special Screening of The Lovely Bones With an Introduction by Local Filmmaker Jay Fishback
4-6 pm		Books to Film: A Great American Tradition - Wine & Cheese Reception With Filmmaker Jay Fishback

THURSDAY, Sept. 20

	Alumni Center Woster Celebration Hall
7:30-9 pm	Festival Fundraiser & Author Reception – TICKET REQUIRED ($50)

CHILDREN'S FESTIVAL LOCATED IN SIOUX FALLS

THURSDAY, Sept. 20

To schedule class visits in Sioux Falls, call the Washington Pavilion at (605) 367-6000.

	Washington Pavilion				Siouxland Public Libraries
	Schulte Black Box Theater	Stage Science	Belbas Theater	Tribal Arts Gallery	Downtown Branch
	Sioux Falls	Sioux Falls	Sioux Falls	Sioux Falls	Sioux Falls
10-10:45 am	"Indians" vs. Indians: Writing the Truth - Joseph M. Marshall III	I Make Picture Books, and You Can Too! - Michael Hall	From Three Hats to One Heart: How My Ideas Become Books - Laura Geringer Bass	Pet'a Shows Misun the Light: Kindness Can Change the World - Jessie Taken Alive Rencountre
11-11:45 am	Arrr: Researching and Writing About Pirates - Kevin Charles Smith	Writing About the Great Outdoors - Aimee Bissonette		From Lakota Oral Tradition to Printed Book - Donald F. Montileaux
12:30-1:15 pm	"Indians" vs. Indians: Writing the Truth - Joseph M. Marshall III	I Make Picture Books, and You Can Too! - Michael Hall	From Three Hats to One Heart: How My Ideas Become Books - Laura Geringer Bass	Pet'a Shows Misun the Light: Kindness Can Change the World - Jessie Taken Alive Rencountre
1:30-2:15 pm	How I Became a Writer, and What I Do - Angelica Shirley Carpenter	Writing About People in History - Aimee Bissonette		From Lakota Oral Tradition to Printed Book - Donald F. Montileaux
4-5 pm					An Infamous Journey: How I Came to Be a Writer, and What I've Learned Along the Way - Kara LaReau

SD FESTIVAL OF BOOK EVENTS

KEY: CHILDREN'S/Y.A. | FICTION | HISTORY/TRIBAL WRITING | NON-FICTION | POETRY | WRITERS' SUPPORT | SPECIAL EVENT

CHILDREN'S FESTIVAL LOCATED IN BROOKINGS

FRIDAY, Sept. 21

To schedule class visits in Brookings, call the Children's Museum at (605) 692-6700.

	Children's Museum of South Dakota
	Community Room	Party on Two	Party on One
	Brookings	Brookings	Brookings
10-10:45 am	Pet'a Shows Misun the Light: Kindness Can Change the World - Jessie Taken Alive Rencountre	I Make Picture Books, and You Can Too! - Michael Hall	Writing About the Great Outdoors - Aimee Bissonette
11-11:45 am	"Indians" vs. Indians: Writing the Truth - Joseph M. Marshall III	From Three Hats to One Heart: How My Ideas Become Books - Laura Geringer Bass	From Lakota Oral Tradition to Printed Book - Donald F. Montileaux
12:30-1:15 pm	Pet'a Shows Misun the Light: Kindness Can Change the World - Jessie Taken Alive Rencountre	I Make Picture Books, and You Can Too! - Michael Hall	Writing About People in History - Aimee Bissonette
1:30-2:15 pm	Arrr: Researching and Writing About Pirates - Kevin Charles Smith	How I Became a Writer, and What I Do - Angelica Shirley Carpenter	From Lakota Oral Tradition to Printed Book - Donald F. Montileaux
4:30-5:30 pm	An Infamous Journey: How I Came to Be a Writer, and What I've Learned Along the Way - Kara LaReau

LOCATED IN BROOKINGS

SUNDAY, Sept. 23

	McCrary Gardens
	Great Hall
10:30 am-12 pm	Book Lovers' Brunch: The Many Faces and Functions of Fiction - Leif Enger, Patrick Hicks, Jess Lourey, C.M. Wendelboe, Rose Ross Zediker - TICKET REQUIRED ($25)